Dear Boyd Braden:

On behalf of the Oklahoma State Department of Education, congratulations on the honor of being named a 2015 High Performing School. This outstanding achievement sets your school apart and is a testament to you and your staff's persistent pursuit of excellence in education.

Designation as a High Performing School means yours is a learning community in which students continually thrive or show significant growth in achievement. We appreciate the years of work that went into this accomplishment and are grateful to you for ensuring students receive an education that will prepare them for greatness in their careers and beyond. Your school is an example of high performance from which every school in Oklahoma can benefit.

Thank you for your continued dedication to Oklahoma's schoolchildren. I look forward to witnessing the great things ahead for your school and students.

Sincerely,
